Michael,
Hope you enjoyed your time away from the office.
We have reserved the pavillion at Milham Park from 2 - 7 pm. The park is just a short distance from the Allied site, and convenient to I-94.
Thank you,
gw

Gary,

Thank you for your email. I will plan on having the tour start at 11 am Eastern time. The tour may take a while so, we may not be able to join up with the picnickers until 3 pm or so. I will be in touch with more specifics/logistics as we get closer to the tour.

Talk with you soon,

Michael

Hi Michael, I left vmail on your office phone, then got another vmail from you on my cell.

I have received confirmation from most folks involved, that moving the Allied site tour back to the 16th will be ok.

Do you still plan to have the tour start at 11:00 or 11:30 am local time?

We have reserved the pavillion at nearby Milham Park, and hope you and your colleagues will be able to share some burgers and brats, and chat in an informal setting. Everyone on the tour is invited to attend the picnic, starting at 2 pm.

Milham Park features Portage Creek meandering through it, and is located about a mile upstream from the Allied site. It is on the northeast quadrant of the intersection of Kilgore Rd. and Lover's Lane. There is easy access to I-94, about 3-4 blocks away, on Portage Rd.

Thank you,

gw
